Bereavement Group

Grief comes with "loss". Many of you are suffering the 'loss' of a loved one, young or old. The pain is or can be overwhelming. In our supportive Bereavement Group, you are free to express your feelings, emotions, or pain in a safe environment, knowing that you are not alone. You are free to share or just listen. The group meets every other Wednesday at the Parish Center. The next meeting is scheduled for June 22nd at 7:00 pm. If you have any questions, please call Sr. Rose Marie at 978-369-7442.

Inquiry Program

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith? Come and see... satisfy your curiosity, enrich your knowledge about the Catholic Faith and its practices, beliefs, traditions, worship, and history. The Inquiry Program will begin in September. This program is open to non-Catholics, those who have never been baptized, and Catholics who have been baptized but never instructed in the faith. Those interested in continuing the process will move into the next step, called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Sr. Rose Marie at 978-369-7442 x229, or email at RoseL55church@aol.com.

Especially for Single Parents

There are many reasons why there are single parents with children still at home: separation, divorce, death, never married. I have been at Holy Family since late summer but have already met a number of folks who meet this description—a few of whom have expressed an interest in getting together occasionally with other single parents in a safe and supportive environment for conversation, perhaps dinner, and mutual support. If you are a single parent and think you might be interested in being informed of activities like these, please send an email to Ken Meltz at dff55church@aol.com with your name, phone number, and email address and I will be in touch. —Ken Meltz

Catholics Come Home Update

The television ads may be over, but the spirit of the Catholics Come Home initiative lives on. What can we here at Holy Family Parish do? Invite a new neighbor to church or to join you for coffee and doughnuts after Mass...Greet someone at Mass who may be visiting who you do not recognize...Suggest our Vacation Bible School to the young family who lives down the street...pray the following Catholics Come Home prayer entitled That All May Know Jesus:

Father, you call each person by name and have given your only Son Jesus to reconcile us to you and to each other.

In your faithfulness, you sent the Holy Spirit to complete the mission of Jesus among us.

Open our hearts to Jesus

Give us the courage to live as followers of Christ.

*Help us to speak his name
To all who are close to us and to share his love with all who are far away.*

We pray that every person everywhere be invited to know Jesus as Savior and will be made new by his infinite love.

We come to you and ask all this through Christ, our Lord. Amen

OFM Cap, Archbishop of Boston
